Piety is not about being 'holier than thou' - Pope Francis

The following lines may help us to understand the true meaning of piety. Pope Francis said that being pious is not squeezing one's eyes shut to the world and putting on a sweet little angel face. Piety is opening up one's heart to God and one's arms to embrace everyone as brothers and sisters. "The gift of piety that the Holy Spirit gives us makes us meek; it makes us peaceful, patient and at peace with God in gentle service to others." Piety is recognizing "our belonging to God, our deep bond with him, a relationship that gives meaning to our whole life and keeps us resolute, in communion with him, even during the most difficult and troubled moments" in life. Piety is about identity and belonging, that is why it renders people "truly capable of being joyful with those who are happy; to cry with those who weep; to be near those who are alone or in distress; to correct those in error; to console the afflicted; to welcome and come to the aid of those in need." The spirit of God is about kinship — a spirit of adoption, not "a spirit of slavery to fall back on into fear." (Rom 8:14-15) "Let us ask the Lord that the gift of his Spirit overcome our fears and uncertainties, our restless and impatient spirit, too, and that it may make us joyous witnesses of God and his love." Let us therefore adore God in a genuine, not forced or fake, way, and to be in service to others "with gentleness and also a smile."

Piety is embracing God and others with real love, not fake devotion – Pope Francis
