Happy Mother's Day

Dear brothers and sisters this Sunday we are celebrating Mother's Day. What a wonderful occasion it is for all of us to express our love, honor and respect towards our mothers. We all know the kind of role they play in our lives and in our families. We all know the amount of sacrifices they make for their children and for their families –it's awesome. Our mothers are very loving, caring, kind, special and unique. Our mothers love is simple. They always love us. What can we give them for their immense love and sacrifices? They don't expect big things from us. They want us to be happy and safe in life. Let's say "I Love you Mom" to our mothers on this mother's day and I am sure that they treasure those words throughout their lives. Finally, I thank you all for your love, care and support. I know that you consider me as one of your family. Sometimes when my mother gets anxious about me I tell her that I have lots of mothers here who take care of me always that helps her not to worry about me too much. To all the mothers of our parishes –I WISH YOU ALL A VERY HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY. THANK YOU! LOVE YOU MOMS! May God Continue to bless you all!

Fr. Maria Joseph Kodiganti
