HOW TO TAKE YOUR FAITH WITH THE SUMMER VACATION?

The summer season marks the end of a school year and the beginning of a much-anticipated long break for many school-aged children. Typically, summer vacations indulge the senses, open up the world, and promote a good time in the quest of relaxation. Most people don't associate vacations with a time to grow in our faith. But to be truly refreshed, both physically and spiritually, vacations should also be a time to grow closer to God and family. Going on an actual pilgrimage for vacation is a way to mix fun with experiencing your faith up close and personal. Pilgrimages don't have to be exotic or an expensive trip to Europe. There are many trips in the U.S. you can take and do on your own. Make every vacation catholic by bringing holy water and blessing your family and car with it before starting. Start the trip with a prayer for safety and end it with one of thanksgiving. Games and conversation are special when everyone is in the car together. Pray a rosary while traveling. Find the nearest church where you are staying; stop in and make a visit. Plan for where you will go to Sunday Mass and consider making time for Daily Mass... both at your destination and end route. Check out the local shrines. Find and listen to Catholic radio in the areas you pass through. Whatever you do, and wherever you go this summer, take your faith with you. God Bless!

FR. MARIA JOSEPH KODIGANTI
