FEAST OF STS. JOACHIM AND ANNE

Dear brothers and sister we celebrate Parents day on 23rd July and Feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Grandparents of Jesus on 26th July. Today there are enormous pressures on parents and families. Some of these pressures come from outside the home, while others come from within the home itself in terms of access to the internet and social media. In situations where parents are stretched in terms of holding down a job, to pay a mortgage and make ends meet, the time which they have with their children is very reduced compared to society in the past. In these situations the grandparents provide an indispensable role. They have time to spend with their grandchildren. Of course you love to see them coming but they have such energy, there are times when you like to see them going. However, you have quality time with them to encourage, support and journey with them in their discoveries of the world. Pope Francis has indicated the important role which his grandparents and particularly his grandmother had in helping to form his life. He acknowledges that he learned his first prayers from her. You can well imagine that Jesus would have learned of the Psalms from both Our Lady and St. Joseph but also from St. Anne and St. Joachim. On this Feast of St. Joachim and St. Anne we entrust all grandparents and grandchildren to their care and protection.

Fr. Maria Joseph Kodiganti
